Emne: Visit city of Nijmegen, the Netherlands to Aarhus

Dear [REDACTED],

Your city Aarhus came upon our radar as a great benchmark city, because of your cultural policy. Aarhus seems to be doing quite a few things differently, and doing it well. As such, we are planning a visit to your city early this spring, during which we would appreciate it, if we could meet with some of the colleagues of Aarhus

Who are we? We are civil servants from the city of Nijmegen, the Netherlands. Our municipality has close to 180,000 inhabitants and will be steadily growing the upcoming decade. Nijmegen is home to several institutes of higher education, such as the Radboud University, which consequently means we retain a steady influx of young urbanites. Our present urban cultural strengths are centered around the disciplines of (pop-)music, film, and historical tourism. In the Nijmegen metropolitan area we have a rich (archeological) history and a successful music scene (large concerts, festivals, and club scene), with visitors from around the world. Hence our slogan 'Old city, young vibe.' Furthermore we have several international film festivals and one of the premier arthouse cinemas of Europe.

In our visit to Aarhus we would like to learn more about your cultural strengths. In our preliminary research your city exemplified embedding culture as part of a vision on the general well-being of your citizens. We want to learn from you in that regard. Therefore, we are planning a visit to Dokk1, Gellerup Sports and Culture Campus, Aros public, and Godsbanen, among others.

Our attempt to learn from your city is due to our own policy. To us, one of the central tenets will be focused on activating culture – such as libraries, centers for the arts, theatres, etc. - and urban development in a coordinated effort towards improving the public's general well-being. This will require an effort on our part as municipal government and patron.

We believe that a visit to Aarhus will inspire us towards that goal. We have planned our trip from the 17th until the 20th of march this year. Our group consists of 9 civil servants. We would like to request your assistance by meeting up with us, sharing your experiences, and help us get in touch with the appropriate professionals at Dokk1, Gellerop, Aros, Godsbanen, and others. Also, if possible, we are keen to hear more from you about your time as 'European Cultural City'. What does such a nomination entail, and what did it achieve or inspire towards?

We are looking forward to hearing from you,

Sincerely,
